The communal work was conducted due to Social Communication (Komsos) which was actively organized by the 503 Task Forces. According to the 503 Task Forces Commander, Lieutenant Colonel Gurbasa Samosir, the Komsos is a realization of the TNI's commitment to implementing inclusive social communication with all components of the community within the Papua region. Previously, the Batas Batu Post led by First Lieutenant Galih Widiharyo met and communicated with Mr Daniel Menjeh as Head of the Asmat Tribe in the Krepkuri District. The Asmat people who live in the Mumugu Village have long wanted the Jew Traditional House to be built. Eventually, it was the first time that the House could be established through communal work between the Soldiers and all components of the community. Responding to the establishment of the Jew Traditional House, a Papa Papua who was respected by the community, namely Papa Primus Firkom enthusiastically said, "Thank you for the kindness of Commander 503.
